

Inspired by Design for a three-level arcade shaped like a pyramid by Paul Goesch

What will you add to the pyramid to make it your own?

These images are inspired by works in the exhibition Portals. The Visionary Architecture of Paul Goesch

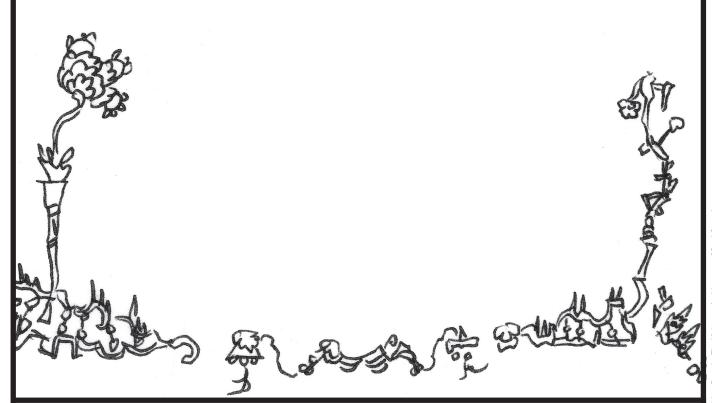

Coloring page based on a detail from: Paul Goesch, Architectural pyramid or Design for a three-level arcade shaped like a pyramid (detail), c. 1920–21, pastel over pen and black ink. Centre Canadien d'Architecture/Canadian Centre for Architecture, Montreal, DR1988:0066

Inspired by Visionary design for a capital surmounted by a seated angel by Paul Goesch

Paul Goesch imagined an angel sitting in this chair. Who do you think should sit in this chair?

Coloring page based on a detail from: Paul Goesch, Visionary design for a capital surmounted by a seated angel (detail), probably December 6, 1920, pen and black ink, watercolor, and medium grey and bronze-colored pigment. Centre Canadien d'Architecture/Canadian Centre for Architecture, Montreal, DR1988.0235 These images are inspired by works in the exhibition Portals: The Visionary Architecture of Paul Goesch

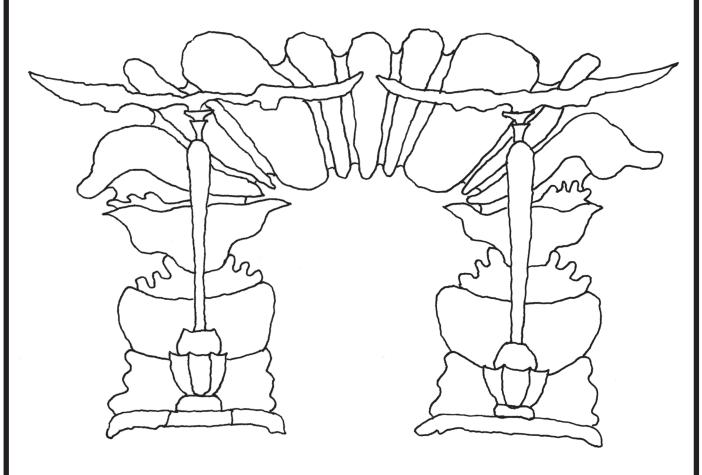

Paul Goesch created visionary designs for archways and fantasy architecture of all kinds. Use this space to draw your own fantasy building.

Artistic interpretation by:

These images are inspired by works in the exhibition Portals. The Visionary Architecture of Paul Goesch

Coloring page based on a detail from: Paul Goesch, Architectural fantasy (detail), c. 1920–21, carbon copy. Centre Canadien d'Architecture/Canadian Centre for Architecture, Montreal, DR1988:0144

Inspired by Visionary design for an arch by Paul Goesch

There's a new world awaiting you through this arch! Draw some of the creatures you'll meet.

These images are inspired by works in the exhibition Portals: The Visionary Architecture of Paul Goesch.

Coloring page based on a detail from: Paul Goesch, Visionary design for an arch (detail), c. 1920–21, graphite and gouache. Centre Canadien d'Architecture/Canadian Centre for Architecture, Montreal, DR1988:0254